Declaration RoHS Directive 2011/65/EU

Directive 2011/65/EU on Restriction of Hazardous Substances (RoHS), restricts the use of some heavy metals, brominated flame-retardants and phthalate softeners in electrical and electronic equipment (EEE).

Pressmaster AB is currently neither manufacturing nor marketing electrical, electronic or other equipment that falls within the scope of the RoHS directive. The RoHS directive does therefore not apply to our products, not neither when sold or packed together with EEE within the scope of RoHS.
